ADDISON BOULEVARD

Loud Demand That Finest East and West Street on North Side Be Made a Boulevard.

Addison street, the longest, widest and best street running east and west, north of the Chicago river, should be made a boulevard. It is free from street car tracks and is the only real boulevard street left and connects three park systems.

Former Alderman P. F. Haynes and City Treasurer Clayton F. Smith deserve thanks for the good work they are doing for Addison boulevard.

Judge John R. Caverly gives general satisfaction to the public in the Municipal Court and grows more popular every day.

One of the very best Aldermen in the City Council is Edward F. Cullerton.

SIDEWALK ORDINANCE NEEDED

City Council Should Regulate Conditions in the Loop.

The City Council should pass an ordinance prohibiting people from loitering on the sidewalks in the Loop. Pedestrians should be compelled by law to keep to the right. As things are at present, without any sort of regulation, some of the downtown streets are almost impassable.

Congressman Thomas Gallagher of Chicago is one of the most influential men in Washington.
